USPA NEWS - Several bombs exploded Thursday and Friday in three Thai and attractions in cities across the south. We condemn these deplorable acts of violence. Our thoughts are with the victims, their families and loved ones, US Department said.

Several bombs exploded Thursday and Friday in three Thai and attractions in cities across the south. We condemn these deplorable acts of violence. Our thoughts are with the victims, their families and loved ones, US Department said. The bombings and arson that left four dead and dozens injured in southern Thailand were "clearly linked", said Sunday the Thai police and an arrest warrant was issued against a man in connection with a fire.

SEVERAL ATTACKS AND BOMBS EXPLODED THURSDAY AND FRIDAY AUG 11-12-----

Simultaneous attacks. Several bombs exploded Thursday and Friday morning three attractions and several cities in southern Thailand. "These actions have been undertaken by a group in several areas simultaneously, following the orders of a single individual," he told reporters Pongsapat Pongcharoen, deputy head of the national police. An arrest warrant was issued in connection with an arson in Nakhon Si Thammarat supermarket, occurred early Thursday, he said. "The United States extends our deepest sympathy to all those affected by the attacks in Thailand. We condemn these deplorable acts of violence. Our thoughts are with the victims, their families and loved ones, and the Thai emergency personnel responding to these incidents. The United States will stay in close contact with Thai authorities as they investigate these attacks". US Department of states said,
